FAIRY FAIL

“Talented and likeable young actors... a very good game of let's pretend” - The Pun (Australia)

From the creators of 2009 Edinburgh Festival Fringe hit, Princess Cabaret, Tumbleweed Theatrical Productions present an exciting and original new children's show.

Ever wondered where fairytale characters go to live happily ever after? Welcome to Fairyfail.

Goldilocks, the most popular girl in all of Fairyfail, has gone missing! The only person who can find her is Brownilocks, her lesser-known, less popular, little sister. As she travels through Fairyfail, Brownilocks soon makes some new friends to help her search. On her way she crosses paths with the Big Bad Wolf, the witch in the Gingerbread House, Rumpelstiltskin and other seemingly scary Fairyfail residents. Brownilocks quickly discovers, however, that they don't quite live up to their menacing reputations.

An original comedy for the whole family, with a live musical score and lots of audience interaction, these fairytale characters come to life through song, dance and laughter. Brydie Lee-Kennedy plays our fearless heroine Brownilocks; Jo Bourke the 'wicked' witch; Sam Pacelli (of Fringe total sell-outs, The Noise Next Door) the Big - but not so bad - Wolf; Matthew Grant (also of The Noise Next Door) the emperor who's lost his clothes; and Sophie Miller our musically-gifted Little Pig. Cheeky and high energy, Fairy Fail is an innovative and engaging script subverting well-known fairytales. To quote our friend the Wolf, "My 'tail' is a great tale to be told!"

Fairy Fail further establishes Tumbleweed Theatrical Productions' reputation for original and comedic children's theatre. Managed by Amanda Jessup and Brydie Lee-Kennedy, Tumbleweed Theatrical Productions has delighted audiences across Australia, at venues including Sydney's Bondi Pavilion and Roxbury Hotel, and received critical acclaim at The Melbourne International Comedy Festival and Adelaide Fringe. Their performance of adult comedy Princess Cabaret at the 2009 Edinburgh Festival Fringe was hailed as "Laugh-out-loud funny... Absolutely hilarious"  (Edinburgh Festival Insider) and "True comedy genius" * (Hairline).
